

THORNBURY TOWNSHIP (CHESTER COUNTY)
HISTORIC PRESERVATION COMMISSION MEETING
Wednesday, June 12, 2013

Present: Chris Lang, Randell Spackman, Michele Thackrah, Dick Webster.

1. Approval of Minutes of May 13, 2013

The commission approved the minutes of May 13, 2013.

2. The Gander Articles

Michele Thackrah will write an article on the former Woodward House at 1295 South New Street for the fall issue of The Gander.

3. Oral History Project

Jim Mobile at the West Chester Senior Center finished editing the Russell Jones interview today at the West Chester Senior Center. The Frank Hash interview will be ready soon. The commission will examine the Oral History Project in July.

4. Commission Archaeology Presentation

The commission reviewed responsibilities for the presentation by Kevin Donaghy, Sunday, June 23, at the Spackman Farm. Publicity (such as a township email blast), parking, seating, refreshments, toilet facilities, invitations, police, and clean-up were addressed.

Estimated expenses are $800.

5. Squire Cheyney Property

Molly Morrison will report on the easement and related matters in July.

6. New Business

Chris Lang attended a meeting of nearby townships that include an expanded area relating to the Brandywine Battlefield. The meeting addressed preservation and open space issues. The commission plans to have a representative at any future meetings.

Chris Lang will see that Randell Spackman and Michele Thackrah are added to the mailing list for the Chester County Preservation Network newsletter.

Richard J. Webster
Commission Secretary

Next Meeting: Wednesday, July 3, 2013, at 7:30 P.M.
