Fire Prevention Week: Smoke Detectors

It's Fire Prevention Week—help us sound the alarm that working smoke alarms save lives!

Did you know that many people don't test their smoke alarms as often as they should? When there is a fire, smoke spreads fast. You need working smoke alarms to give you time to get out.

Smoke alarms that are properly installed and maintained play a vital role in reducing fire deaths and injuries. Almost two-thirds of home fire deaths resulted from fires in homes with no smoke alarms or no working smoke alarms.

Here's what you need to know:

- 1) Install smoke alarms in every bedroom, outside each sleeping area and on every level of your home;

- 2) Test your smoke alarms every month;
- 3) When a smoke alarm sounds, get outside and stay outside; and
- 4) Replace all smoke alarms in your home every 10 years.

For more information go to: www.nfpa.org/safety-information/fire-prevention-week.

What Is The Value of Open Space?

How did you come to be a resident of Thornbury Township, Chester County? What drove your decision to come here and why do you remain?

The choices that we make about where to live are driven by many factors – jobs and schools among them. But in a recent economic development survey, a cross-section of Chester County residents were asked what qualities of Chester County they value most. The most resounding and oft-repeated answer was Open Space. Our responding citizens put their finger on the most compelling and distinguishing feature of our county – its beauty, its scenery, its parks, its farms, and its rural character – in short, its open spaces.

Chester County citizens have always demonstrated a strong land ethic. After all, agriculture has long dominated our local economy and continues to be one of our leading industries. But Chester County has also prioritized the protection of natural lands for the myriad of benefits – filtering our water, controlling flooding, cleansing our air and providing habitat for the diverse array of birds, plants and animals with which we share our home.

Recreational opportunities also feature prominently in the amazing benefits that open spaces provide. Chester County has thousands of acres of parks and nature preserves, as well as a growing network of trails available – for hiking, biking, playing and just getting out-of-doors.

Clearly, open spaces are more than just pretty places. And, they not only enhance our quality of life, they benefit our bottom line. Homes closer to open space enjoy a significant increase in property value, according to a report by the Delaware Valley Regional Planning Commission (DVRPC) -- and the closer to parks, trails and scenic areas, the higher a house's value. On average, all of the homes in our region are worth $10,000 more because of access to open space. Couple those economic benefits with the cost savings provided by natural systems, the health benefits of outdoor recreation, and the jobs and economic activity generated by farmland and tourism, and you have an economic driver contributing billions of dollars to the regional economy.

Chester County's heritage also celebrates its history and cultural assets as well – another area where open space plays an important role. A historic house or barn needs to retain its setting to truly capture the sense of historic events and persons. Thornbury Township's newest park, The Squire Cheyney Farm Park, will provide that context for the homestead of one of Thornbury's most distinguished citizens.

MS4 TIP: POOL WATER

Chlorinated water discharged to surface waters has an adverse effect on local water quality. Swimming pools are a major source of chlorinated water discharged into sanitary and storm sewer systems. An average swimming pool holds 19,000 gallons of highly chlorinated water, which is toxic to wildlife and fish. Instead of discharging pool water to the storm sewer system or directly into a water body, residents should investigate alternative discharge options such as discharging the chlorinated water to land where it will not drain to local surface waters or de-chlorinate the water before draining the pool.

WEGO POLICE REPORT PHONE SCAM

“GRANNY SCAM”: Victim is contacted via email or telephone call by a subject claiming to be a friend or relative. Most frequently, it is a person claiming to be the grandchild of the victim (thus the name “Granny Scam”). The caller claims that they have an emergency and asks the victim to send money immediately. Frequently the caller will claim that they have been involved in a serious crash or have been arrested and need money to keep from being taken to jail. Most recently, the caller has been claiming to be a police officer who has arrested the friend/relative and will send them to jail unless the victim posts bail. Once again, the victim is requested to go the nearest store (Walmart, Rite Aid) and purchase Green Dot Money Cards. When the cards are purchased, the person is requested to provide the numbers from the backs of the cards (enabling them to retrieve the money electronically). For more information visit www.thornburytwp.org.
